1. In September 1954, a new uranium mine had been opened at Radvanice (051/G85) and another was reported at Horni Mizecky (051/G56). The latter place was a mountain resort, but huts and cottages have now been evacuated.
2. Test drilling for uranium was being carried out in the late summer of 1954 on Jested Mountain (051/G16). This place is linked to Liberec by mountain railway and is a tourist resort. The area where the drilling is in progress is enclosed and guarded.
